Call to Worship

Liturgist, Rose Horsman

L: All around us, God is looking for folks who will join in serving others.

P: It is as if God is planting seeds of compassion in us, watching for them to bloom in our lives.

L: In our midst, Jesus is walking among us, tending our hearts, watering us with grace.

P: It is as if Jesus is trusting that our souls will grow big enough to welcome everyone.

L: From morning to evening, the Spirit is at work, gently tending this garden called life.

P: It is as if the Spirit has found the perfect spots to bring forth crops of justice and peace.

*Hymn No.442

“The Church’s One Foundation”

 Unison Prayer of Confession

When all we can see is winter, God, we fail to see and trust in your promise of new life. We do not trust the power of the seeds of life you have planted in each of us, and we do not trust the power of your vision to transform the world through us. Encourage us. Turn our eyes again to the cross and empty tomb that we might know your power to bring life to all. (Time for silence)
